Kudos For Crisis Team

I am writing to express my support of the Port Washington Crisis Relief Team, which is a vital asset to our community.

Thank you to the Seiden, Donatelli and May families, Vivian Moy, Councilwoman Dina De Giorgio and all the other dedicated volunteers who founded this non-profit organization in the aftermath of Superstorm Sandy.

The Port Washington Crisis Relief Center supports the greater Port Washington community. The team provided community support and a gathering center in the aftermath of Sandy, helped residents displaced from a Main Street fire and prepares for future emergency needs.

By working with the local chapter of the Red Cross, the great professionals of the Port Washington Police District and volunteer Fire Department, Landmark on Main Street, Port Washington Library and other community organizations, the Port Washington Crisis Relief Team has become an essential community partner. The team is yet another example of what makes our community a great place to live.
